

A Story – To Set the Stage

Once upon a time a world was filled with seven billion people. They were pawns; their lives were controlled. They were deceived and lied to by the “Elite” few. Everything in their daily lives was manipulated, so the “Elite” could stay in power and profit.

All the information they received was engineered cover ups; media, government, economy, energy, transportation, environment, education, health, food, weather, and space landings.

Because of it, they suffered from; poverty, famine, unemployment, droughts, floods, fires, crime, and wars. The truth & technologies were kept from them, because of the power hungry “Elite”.

Secretly some of the people questioned their existence and searched to discover the truth. Their world was changing; physically, mentally, and spiritually. Creatures from other worlds knew their plight and came to help them. The people discovered the creatures were actually their OWN ANCESTORS. They had been turned into aliens and were not in their true form. The people were actually magnificent powerful beings. Their lives were not real.

Carefully and slowly their ancestors helped them to get their world back. The plan went into action.

Announcements were made. A new temporary world government took over, followed by new banks with a new financial system of prosperity, which was dispersed to everyone. The new government stopped the wars, introduced new technologies and held elections for a new world order.

The new technologies were the key to taking the power from the “Elite”.

Everyone became Telepathic to communicate with each other. Phones, the internet, and communications devices went obsolete. Healing Devices eliminated the entire health industry including pharmaceuticals. Environmental Devices cleaned up the weather and planet. Teleportation tanked the transportation industries. Communication buttons saw the internet, phones, and television go bye bye. Nano technology and replicators made anything they wanted. It wiped out a lot of industries; food, clothing, furniture, accessories, appliances, and more. Sonic Showers took over for the bathroom; in a minute the body is squeaky clean. Holography provided communications, entertainment, and information.

Get the picture? The powerless “Elite” was kaput, done, gone!!

Then mass landings brought other beings from outside their planet to help orient and allow everyone to see their true selves. All seven billion people were taken inside their planet where another society existed, called Agarthia. There they were returned to their original majestic form. Their planet above also returned to its original brilliant form in the Fifth Dimension and beyond.

Fully restored to the fifth dimension the people spread out throughout the cosmos to serve with light, love, and joy. They all lived happily ever after.

Guess What? This Story Is Coming True Now!

Our Changing World

Are You Ready? Hang on! Here We Go! Our Future is Awesome!

What Will Happen?

There will be a flash/big wave of Divine energy and light that comes from our Galactic Central sun in the middle of the Milky Way. It will head for the surface of Mother Earth. It will be a calming light of love energy. Everyone on earth will feel it, and will know something has happened. We don't know when it will happen, and it won't last very long. It will be a big shock even to those who know what's going on. It will be recognized as a positive change. 90% of the planet won't know anything about it, or what's going on. They will need help.

This Is What You Should Do Now! - Your "To Do" List

We are about to enjoy a well-deserved non-violent liberation of Gaia along with a beautiful future for ALL of humanity.

Since we do not know when this will happen start these tasks NOW!

1. Keep an extra 2 weeks of food and water on hand starting now.
2. Make sure you and your loved ones have an up to date supply of any medicines that might be required.
3. Keep extra cash hidden away at your home.
4. Gas up your vehicle when the tank is 1/2 empty.
5. Stay in touch with websites for updates.
6. Educate yourself, friends, and family members.
7. Get together in groups and do meditations. Focus on bringing in love, peace, and harmony.
8. Be sure to remain calm and centered, and to encourage others to do the same. They will be looking for answers, and you will be able to help them. So study and prepare yourself to be of service.

Imagine what a wonderful world we will live in. No money, no weapons, no wars, no countries. We will remember who we are with Mother Earth/Gaia. We are one with the universe and destined for the entire multiverse. We will ascend with Gaia.
