

What's Happening?

1. The Cover Ups

Once upon a time a world was filled with seven billion people. They were pawns; their lives were controlled. They were deceived and lied to by the “Elite” few. Everything in their daily lives was manipulated, so the “Elite” could profit.

All the information they received was engineered cover ups; media, government, economy, energy, transportation, environment, education, health, food, weather, and space landings.

Because of it, they suffered from; poverty, famine, unemployment, droughts, floods, fires, crime, and wars. The truth & technologies were kept from them, because of the power hungry “Elite”.

Secretly some of the people questioned their existence and searched to discover the truth. Their world was changing; physically, mentally, and spiritually. Creatures from other worlds knew their plight and came to help them. The people discovered the creatures were actually their OWN ANCESTORS. They had been turned into aliens and were not in their true form. We, the people were actually magnificent powerful beings. Their lives were not real.

Carefully & slowly their ancestors helped them to get their world back. The plan went into action. Announcements were made. A new temporary world government took over, followed by new banks with a new financial system of prosperity, which was dispersed to everyone. The new government stopped the wars, introduced new technologies and held elections for a new world order.

The new technologies were the key to taking the power from the “Elite”.

Everyone became Telepathic to communicate with each other. Phones, the internet, and communications devices went obsolete. Healing Devices eliminated the entire health industry including pharmaceuticals. Environmental Devices cleaned up the weather and planet. Teleportation tanked the transportation industries. Communication buttons saw the internet, phones, and television go bye bye. Nano technology and replicators made anything they wanted. It wiped out a lot of industries; food, clothing, furniture, accessories, appliances, and more. Sonic Showers took over for the bathroom; in a minute the body is squeaky clean. Holography provided communications, entertainment, and information.

Get the picture? The powerless “Elite” was kaput, done, gone!!

Then mass landings brought other beings from Agartha to help orient and allow others to see their true self. . All seven billion people were taken inside their planet where another society existed, called Agartha. There they were returned to their original majestic form. Their planet above also returned to its original brilliant form in the Fifth Dimension.

Fully restored to the fifth dimension the people spread out throughout the cosmos to serve with light, love, and joy. They all lived happily ever after.

3. What's Changing?

EVERYTHING IS CHANGING! Our world is on the brink of a glorious transformation and transition. We need your help to wake up, and be a part of this magnificent event that has never been done before.

Our Real Origins

First, I need to digress a little and give a condensed history of our true origins, and how we got into this pickle we are in.

We are all immigrants on this planet. We came from the cosmos, Sirius to be exact.

The Sirians are our ANCESTORS, except they may be taller but the LOVE that oozes out of them will be reassuring and calming. Many years ago, there were wars in space and some were about our planet. We became the Lumerians enlightened magnificent beings of higher dimensions. The Atlantians (dark forces) wanted the planet and defeated the Lumerians. Then they messed with our DNA and dropped us down to 3D beings.

The Earth was almost destroyed. The Atlantians left, and the remaining Lumerians survived. We evolved from there, except we were 3D beings with limited capabilities.

The powerful dark forces came back and found us easy to control and manipulate. They set up a quarantine imprisoning us with a veil around the Earth (Gaia). The dark forces (illuminati/cabal/New World Order) control everything on and in our world for power, profit, greed, lust and manipulation for thousands of years. They are the powerful FEW, and we are the MANY sheep.

They control the air we breathe, types of fuel we burn, the way diseases get treated, our entertainment, our religions, our money supply, most of the food we eat, much of the water we drink, our governments, our education systems, the media, our space technologies, and our DNA.

However, this is all about to change. The domination and manipulation will be stopped!!

What Will Happen?

There will be a flash/big wave of Divine energy and light that comes from our Galactic Central sun in the middle of the Milky Way. It will head for the surface of Mother Earth. It will be a calming light of love energy. Everyone on earth will feel it, and will know something has happened.

We don't know when it will happen, and it won't last very long.

It will be a big shock even to those who know what's going on. It will be recognized as a positive change. 90% of the planet won't know anything about it, or what's going on. They will need help.
